

2nd INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL HUMANITIES SYMPOSIUM

Health after the Covid-19 pandemic: new narratives between technology and well-being

October 7th, 8th & 9th 2020

09:00 am to 11:45 am Santiago

14:00 pm to 16:45 pm Madrid

Via Zoom Webinar

(Simultaneous translation available English / Spanish)

Wednesday 7th October 2020

T: Topic C: Chair

T

Artificial intelligence, society and technology in times of Covid-19

C

Juan Carlos Claro, Faculty of Medicine Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile

09:00 - 09:05 (Chile)
14:00 - 14:05 (Madrid)

Opening

Carla Benaglio - Alejandro De Marinis
Faculty of Medicine of Clínica Alemana Universidad del Desarrollo (Chile)

09:05 - 09:30 (Chile)
14:05 - 14:30 (Madrid)

The Covid 19 pandemic as a collective limit situation

Thomas Fuchs, University of Heidelberg (Germany)

09:30 - 09:55 (Chile)
14:30 - 14:55 (Madrid)

Emotions in relation. 'Artificial empathy' in socially assistive robotics

Luisa Damiano, University of Messina (Italy)

09:55 - 10:20 (Chile)
14:55 - 15:20 (Madrid)

Question and answer session

10:20 - 10:30 (Chile)
15:20 - 15:30 (Madrid)

Break

10:30 - 10:55 (Chile)
15:30 - 15:55 (Madrid)

Robots as social mediators in Education - The role of embodiment in times of social distancing

Hagen Lehmann, University of Macerata (Italy)

10:55 - 11:20 (Chile)
15:55 - 16:20 (Madrid)

Telemedicine and new perspectives for the doctor-patient relationship

Arnold Hoppe, Faculty of Medicine Clínica Alemana Universidad del Desarrollo (Chile)

11:20 - 11:30 (Chile)
16:20 - 16:30 (Madrid)

Question and answer session

11:30 - 11:55 (Chile)
16:30 - 16:55 (Madrid)

Closing remarks: "Las Voces del Covid-19 (Voices of Covid-19)", Center for Medical Humanities, Faculty of Medicine Clínica Alemana Universidad del Desarrollo

Víctor Navia, Hospital Padre Hurtado (Chile)